

Ambreen Waheed

Ms. Waheed, a resident of Pakistan, is among the pioneers of corporate responsibility (CSR) and workplace process integrity there. She is the Founder and Executive Director of the Responsible Business Initiative, Pakistan's only citizen sector organization dedicated to corporate responsibility.

She has served on: the Board Nominating Committee of Global Reporting Initiative; the Steering Board UN Global Compact in Pakistan; the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP) Governance Taskforce; and the Board of Trustees – Asia-Pacific Roundtable on Sustainable Consumption & Production. She is a founding member of: Asia-Pacific CSR Centers Group; the South Asia Alliance for Responsible Business; the Asian Forum on CSR; Fairtrade Pakistan; and the Globally Responsible Leaders Initiative of the Global Compact Learning Forum & EFMD.

She has been invited as a CSR expert on the ICAP Corporate Governance Committee; SECP NGO Accountability Policy taskforce; the UNCTAD ISAR committee; the Accountability-UNEP Review Committee; Asia-Pacific regional ICT consultation. She has served the juries for the Asia Forum CSR Awards; and the ACCA-WWF Environmental reporting Awards. She Chairs the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) Emerging Markets Working Group.

Ambreen is the author of Pakistan's first CSR status report commissioned by the UNDP and SECP, xxx, and is co-author of AccountAbility's State of Responsible Competitiveness 2007 launched at GC Leaders Forum in Geneva. She has taught at ESSEC-France, and in the USA at the University of Michigan and the Wharton Business School. She has a Computer Science degree and Management degree from the Judge Institute, Cambridge University-UK.