

Jenny Tan

Ms. Tan Suat Eam, a resident of Malaysia, is currently Chief Operating Officer, Adant Management Sdn Bhd, Director for Corporate Affairs at Adant Logistics Sdn Bhd and is a Senior Consultant for Environet Sdn Bhd. She is currently a Council Member of ENSEARCH Malaysia, a Member of Board of Trustees of the Asia Pacific Roundtable on Sustainable Consumption and Production and is a Steering Committee Member for the Prime Minister's Hibiscus Award (Environment Award) for Industry & Business. She has been a member of the Malaysian Department of Environment's Sustainable City (Bandar Lestari) Competition and is a member of the Panel of Judges for Petaling Jaya City Council's Best (Sustainable) Neighbourhood Competition. Her work experience has been vast - in various aspects of Ozone Management/Phaseout of CFCs, air pollution monitoring and control, water pollution monitoring and control, environmental impact assessment, environmentally hazardous substances, solid waste management, scheduled waste management, cleaner production/pollution prevention, green productivity, waste minimisation, environmental management systems, environmental audit and the Clean Development Mechanism. She graduated in Chemistry from The Science University of Malaysia, Penang, and holds a Diploma in Management from the Malaysian Institute of Management. She has also undergone training in Air Pollution Control, Environmental Management Systems, Environmental Auditing and Environmental Performance Evaluation.