

NguyenVanThanh

Mr. Thanh, a resident of Vietnam, is Deputy Director General, the Industrial Safety Techniques and Environment Agency, Ministry of Industry and Trade (MOIT). He has ten years experience in Industrial environmental management at the central government level. Together with his colleagues, he has responsibility for directing, guiding and supporting industries to make sure that industrial enterprises and trading companies comply with environmental laws. His duties have strongly involved in cleaner production since 2001 and he has provided many CP presentations and trainings. in workshops, training courses nationwide to promote CP application. Since 2007, he has served as a member of the National Steering Committee on Disaster Mitigation and Climate Change Adaptation. He is also a trainer on hazardous waste management and has provided training courses since 2003 in cooperation with experts from USEPA.