

Eng V R Sena Peiris

Eng Sena Peiris is a Mechanical and Industrial Engineer residing in Sri Lanka. He graduated with Bachelor of Science of Engineering(Hons)degree and has 35 years experience in the Sri Lankan industrial sector. Starting his carrier in 1974 as a mechanical engineer at Sugar industry Eng Peiris became the chief engineer of sugar industries in 1977. He later served in Textile, Petroleum, Plastics fields holding several key positions from Chief Engineer to General Manager. His specializes in Thermal Energy and Environment. Eng Peiris is a Authorized Inspector of Pressure vessels and a certified energy auditor. Eng Peiris has a post graduate diploma in Industrial Engineering too.

Eng Peiris is one of the pioneering CP consultant in Sri Lanka. Having followed a CP auditor training program he served as a consultant to industries on CP. He also is a certified ISO 14001 EMS auditor/consultant. In 2002 he became the first Director of National Cleaner Production Centre and serves in that capacity to-date. Eng Peiris was the president of Cleaner Production Professionals' Forum of Sri Lanka, ISO 14001 EMS Users Association of Sri Lanka, an executive board member of Sri Lanka Energy Manager's Association(SLEMA).